

Emilia Maryniak

I WILL TELL YOU A TALE AND THE TALE WILL BE LONG

Installation

04:45 min sound video with text, marjoram herbs,
black-box construction

Emilia Maryniak is a multi-media installation artist interested in the concept of self-mythology and self-identity as a process, specifically with its relation to a physical body and memory. She analyses biological body as a notion of meanings, archetypes and myths, while memory interests her as a language of genes and gestures.